TA Opens In Osseo, Wisconsin

TravelCenters of America, nationwide operator of the TA, Petro Stopping Centers and TA Express network of travel centers that offers fueling, convenience store, dining options and other services, is expanding its network with a new TA Express in Osseo, Wisconsin. The former Osseo Truck stop is a popular location with a loyal customer base of professional drivers and other travelers. The site is converting to a TA Express through a franchise agreement and is the first TA Express to open in Wisconsin.

Located along a high-volume corridor on I-94 between Madison and Minneapolis, the site gives travelers another convenient place to stop along their journey, while getting the benefits of TA's UltraONE loyalty program and other highly regarded services. The travel center is TA's sixth location in Wisconsin and grows the total nationwide network of travel centers to 273.

"TA is committed to expanding our network to serve more travelers who need a trusted place to stop and rest," said Barry Richards, president of TA. "Our smaller format TA Express model offers a quick, clean and convenient option for motorists, while providing professional drivers with the services they need and trust while on the road."

TA Express Osseo is located along I-94, Exit 88, at 12613 Gunderson Road. Total amenities include:

- Dining options: Hunt Brothers Pizza, Osseo Family Restaurant, on-site deli
- Convenience store with coffee, snacks and merchandise
- Six private showers
- Laundry facilities
- Eight diesel fueling positions with DEF on all lanes
- Eight gasoline fueling lanes
- 125 truck parking spaces
- 100 car parking spaces

TA recently announced its commitment to serving more travelers and growing its footprint nationwide through franchising. The company plans to open over 20 franchised travel centers in 2021 throughout the country.

Landstar BCOs receive the "better of" fuel rebate of cost-plus $0.025 or retail less $0.04 at TA Express Osseo, Wisconsin, site number 06431.
